"PRESIDENTIAL" ROW BUSY NOW

FAMOUS INSTITUTION IS NOW
PREPARING FOR FINAL DRIVE IN PRESIDENTIAL RACE

By the Associated Press

CHICAGO, May 20.—"Presidential Row," an institution unique in American politics, is preparing for the final drive that will culminate the week of June 8 in the nomination of a republican candidate for president of the United States.

The "Row," which each four years is the center of national pre-convention politics, is going through the biggest season in its history. "Presidential Row" includes parts of two Michigan Boulevard hotels, which are connected by a subterranean passage and along the row every leading republican presidential candidate has established or will establish his headquarters. Here, too, the republican national committee maintains extensive offices, while the democratic committee meets here on occasion.

Since the republicans began holding their conventions here regularly in 1904, the "Row" has become an institution of the party.

National headquarters of Governor Frank O. Lowden and Major-General Leonard Wood were the first to open this season. The Wood delegation has been active on the "Row" since early last winter and the Lowden camp has been on the ground since January 1.

Later arrivals included western headquarters for Herbert Hoover and Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, and the regional offices of Governor Edwards, democrat of New Jersey.

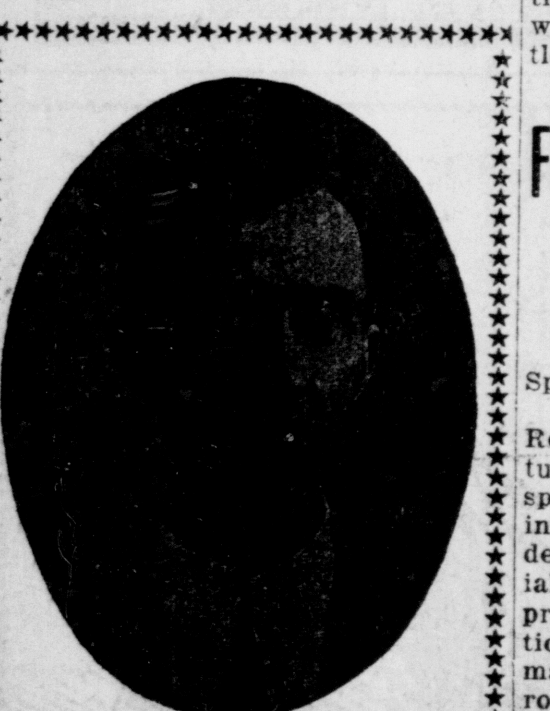

Reservations have been made for Senator Hiram Johnson, Senator Miles Poindexter and Governor Coolidge of Massachusetts. They will open offices several days before the convention.

The republican national committee has had offices on the "Row" for several months. The committee will move to convention headquarters at the Coliseum about May 24, and there will begin hearing contests for convention seats on May 25 or 26, according to present plans.

Following the convention the republican committee will occupy an entire floor, including the ball room, in a downtown hotel, and also establish work rooms in a loop office building.

Will H. Hays, chairman of the committee, is expected to spend considerable time during the campaign here, and one of the large hotel parlors is being prepared for his private office.

The democratic national committee will maintain headquarters here, but has not yet selected a location. Chairman Homer S. Cummings will divide his time between the offices here and those at the Grand Central Palace, New York.

Luther Harrison.

Durant citizens are glad to have as their guest for the next two days, Hon. Luther Harrison, of Ada, who has been chosen to deliver the commencement addresses for Southeastern and the O. P. College. We are indeed glad to welcome this distinguished Oklahoman to Durant and it is indeed fitting that he should be present and deliver the addresses to these two great schools. Mr. Harrison has ever been a friend to education, it has been one of his life's aims to increase the educational facilities so that it would be within the reach of the humblest boy or girl. He has ever been a friend to Southeastern, he has assisted this school, also a citizen of a city where in was located a state normal. We appreciate him and his work in behalf of education. We extend to Mr. Harrison a cordial welcome. Let our people go out and hear him. —Durant Democrat.

McAlester---An Appreciation

We have been with you two days, McAlester, and we're for you, strong for you.

We have been meeting together, McAlester and visiting folks, for many years, in many cities, but never, McAlester, have we had quite so good a time, as we have had with you.

We met in your big Masonic Temple, McAlester, and we shook hands with your Freeman and your Saxton, we slept in your big hotel, we counted your bright lights, we trod your fine paved streets, we heard of your road bonds, we met your "certainteed" mayor, we were greeted by your people, we rode in your Fords and your Packards. And we must say, McAlester, you have some Temple, some Freeman, some Saxton, some hotel, some bright lights, some streets, some bonds, some cars, some mayor and you all are some fine folks.

If ever we change our base, voluntarily, McAlester, we're coming with you. But—if we have to change against our will, we will see Roy Hoffman before we start.

We ate a meal with you, McAlester, out at your big farm in the country. That was nice of you, McAlester, but thank you, we don't care for any more of the soup, nor the roast, nor the bread, nor the "coffee," nor even of the "pie." No, McAlester, when we change our boarding houses, it will take more than moral suasion to get us in yours. Stone walls may not be a prison make, nor iron bars a cage, but yours is a heluva good imitation.

But, McAlester, we ate your barbecue and your banquet; we shimied your dance and we paged your pageant and that leaves us in your debt.

We went down into your coal mines, McAlester, and saw the place where your miners get $1.30 for our $12.00 coal. We favor, McAlester, paying your miners $1,000 a ton. And when they strike again, the call of patriotism will not induce us to join Robertson and Barrett and the other miners. We'll freeze first, or burn Oklahoma natural gas, which is the same thing.

We had a look at your sheriff, McAlester, and he sure ought to be in the movies.

We met your near-beer, McAlester, and your far-corn, and both are poor judges of distance.

We tried your patrol wagon, McAlester, we tried your jail, and we tried—rather, he tried us—your police judge and we found them functioning properly.

We met your Capt. Myers, McAlester, and Capt. Myers' pipe, but as he judges this contest, we must respect his modesty. But anyway, he's some editor and the News-Cap is the best paper of its size and quality we ever read.

We will come back, McAlester, voluntarily, and if you ever meet any of us when you are away from home, if we don't recognize you, just whisper "McAlester" and we'll give you the town, wrap it up and deliver it to you.

Here's to you, McAlester, to you and your family; may you live long and prosper.

SENATE ORDERS INVESTIGATION

CONTRIBUTIONS AND EXPENDITURES
MUST BE MADE PUBLIC
IF BILL PASSES AND BECOMES LAW

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Investigation of presidential candidate campaigns of both parties, including their contributions and expenditures for use of influences, was ordered today by the senate.

The resolution by Senator Borah, representative, providing for an investigation by a privileges and elections subcommittee, was adopted without a record vote and with little discussion.

FERRIS ASSISTING WITH SOLDIER BONUS

Special to the News.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 20.—Representative Scott Ferris, who returned yesterday from a two weeks speaking trip in Oklahoma in the interest of his candidacy for the democratic United States senatorial nomination, has secured the promise of the railroad administration to supply 50 box cars and 50 mail cars daily to the belt line railroad that serves to assemble and transport to the trunk line railroad the output of zinc in the Miami lead and zinc district. Immediate relief for the shipped was promised. Ferris returned to Washington to help with the American Legion soldiers' relief bill and to take up some other departmental matters relative to the establishment of adequate hospital facilities in Oklahoma for the state's ex-service men. Mr. Ferris will soon return to Oklahoma to resume his campaign. He said today, "The senatorial campaign is warming up in Oklahoma. My friends everywhere are active and tell me that I will be both nominated and elected."

EIGHTEEN DAYS UNTIL CONVENTION

FORTY-SEVEN STATES SEND IN STRUCTURED DELEGATIONS; WOOD LEADS WITH JOHNSON SECOND.

By the Associated Press

CHICAGO, May 20.—With the republican national convention only 18 days away and 899 of the 934 delegates elected, the situation facing the republican candidates is that no candidate will enter the convention with enough votes pledged to him to give him any decided advantage over his opponents. Forty-seven of the 53 states and territories have chosen their delegation and are sending to Chicago 537 unstructured delegates, 44 more than a majority of those who sit in the convention.

Major General Wood, on the face of the returns today, will show the most strength on the first ballot, for of those delegates who have been instructed or have expressed a preference, 145 are pledged to him. In addition he carried the preferential primary in Vermont, but that state's 8 delegates have not yet been chosen by the state convention.

Wood's nearest competitor in the delegation already pledged, is Senator Johnson of California, who commands 100 votes. Governor Lowden of Illinois with 73 votes pledged to him, is third while Senator Harding of Ohio has 39 votes from his home state.

There are, however, contests pending in 12 states and the district of Columbia, involving 104 delegates. 35 of the contests are on Wood delegates, six on Lowden men and 63 among the unstructured delegates. The credentials committee will meet here May 31st, to thrash out the contests. Campaign managers at Chicago, for the various candidates, agree that there will be no nomination on the first ballot. The complimentary vote for the large list of "favorite sons" may in fact, they say, be so large that it will destroy the usual significance of the first ballot, as is indicated of the strength of the various candidates.

Demand Reciprocal Release

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Hungarian communists held by the Austrian authorities must not be transferred to Russia without the reciprocal release of all Americans now detained in Soviet Russia, the State Department today informed the American commission in Vienna.

Estimates for the truck and automobile tires needed in the United States this year are 12,000,000 greater than last year's output.

HARD BLOWS FROM MARSHALL

"EQUAL AND EXACT JUSTICE TO ALL MEN" IN OPEN-ING CONVENTION.

By the Associated Press

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 20.—"Equal and exact justice to all men" as a remedy for unrest was prescribed by Vice President Marshall in his keynote address today before the state democratic convention. He also urged "jail sentences for profiteers and increased production to relieve the high cost of living."

"I hold that the democratic doctrine of equal and exact justice to all men and of special privileges to none will meet all the angry irconcilable views of today," said Mr. Marshall.

The vice president also expressed the hope that President Wilson and the senate would reconcile their differences over the peace treaty and that it would be ratified. But, Mr. Marshall said, no man should be read out of the democratic party because of his opinion on the league of nations.

"This was, as I understand it," the vice president said, "an American war. The peace should be an American peace. The war could not have been fought successfully as either a democratic or a republican war. The peace cannot bring that real peace, which the American people want, if it be made either a democratic or a republican peace."

Vice President Marshall said his comment on the treaty would be brief, for he had no hope of lighting the "cimmerian" darkness, which now envelops it, but added: "A lifelong advocate of a resort to court and not to force, I gave my unqualified endorsement to the altruistic views of the president in the defense of which views he has broken his body."

Any let up in the enforcement of national prohibition until legal change has been made in its provision was opposed by Mr. Marshall, who warned the democratic party that it would "merit the contempt of the people if it ever stands for the flaunting of a law because certain citizens do not believe in it."

Mr. Marshall declared the aftermath of the war in legislative halls would be heart-breaking if it were not for the "numerous" and charged that the republicans spent the last year in searching investigation at great expense to show that the victory, which we won was "really a defeat."

"Let us not delude ourselves," the vice president said, "into the belief that the currency and credit of the country can double, the population increase and the production remain at a standstill and yet that the high cost of living may be reduced and peace, plenty and prosperity abound in the land. Let us quit talking about the profiteer and begin jailing him, and let the man who works understand that in greater production he benefits himself as well as his fellow man."

"You cannot gain the loyalty of the citizens of America until they have made up their minds that the laws of the country shall rest with justice and equal force on high and low alike."

Restoration, now that the war is ended, of freedom of speech and of the press, with punishment for those seeking to create disorder or overthrow the government by any other than legal means, was urged by Mr. Marshall, who also advocated readjustment of taxation after government expenses have been reduced to a minimum in order to place the burdens upon those most able to bear them.

While omitting any direct reference to soldier bonus legislation, Vice President Marshall said he would say to the former service men, "sound of body and mind," that they can obtain anything they want from congress.

BOLSHEVIK FORCES CONTINUE TO WIN

By the Associated Press

LONDON, May 20.—The offensive begun last Friday by the Bolsheviks against the Poles, along the 50-mile line on the northern front, was continuing until Friday, according to a statement from the soviet government received by wireless from Moscow today. The Polish retreat was continuing and was panicky at some points, the statement declared. The capture of a large number of prisoners and an immense amount of supplies is claimed.

"ENDYMION"

A GREEK PLAY IN THREE ACTS

Endymion is a prince renowned for his beauty. Artemis, goddess of the chase, falls in love with him, and tries to get him to leave the mortals and follow her in her hunt. Endymion is in love with Phrynia and refuses. Artemis then asks Morpheus, god of sleep, to put Endymion into an eternal sleep. Hermes, messenger of the gods, makes Morpheus change his magic spell so that one beside the goddess may wake Endymion, and that one, a mortal, who loves him with such unselfish loyalty that he will gladly resign his dearest possession for the power to wake his friend. His parents, King Aeolus and Queen Hermia, bring three priests of Zeus, but they are unable to awaken him. Eumenides, bond friend of Endymion, agrees to give up his dearest possession who is Kallisthene, but Artemis returns Kallisthene to her lover.

OFFICERS SEEK COAL CITIZEN

MAN SHOT AT NINE TIMES BY AN EX-CONVICT—NOW AT LARGE ON CREEK IN LULA VICINITY.

Two citizens whose names are withheld, came to Ada and spent the night in the county jail last night in order to escape death at the hands of a would-be murderer in the eastern part of Pontotoc county.

The men are well known and highly respected citizens of the community in which they live. They told the following story to a reporter for the News this morning:

The man who is causing the trouble is Emmet Bales, who lives in the Rocky Point community in Coal county. Mr. Bales several years ago was charged with killing a man named Davis near Steedman, and served two and a half years in expiration for his crime. He was pardoned at the request of citizens of this county. He returned to his old home and for the past three years has been living in the western part of Coal county.

Sometime last week someone tore down a fence belonging to Mr. Bales. A Mr. Wehnt had recently moved into the community and the two went and looked at the fence. It is not known what words passed on this occasion, as no trouble was had.

Last Sunday Mr. Wehnt got on his horse and started to Tupelo to get his mail. It is said that Mr. Bales stopped him on the way and ordered him to dismount. The man telling the story today said that Mr. Bales said: "Get down from that horse, put your hands behind you. I am going to the you to that post and shoot your heart out." STOCK DIVIDEND TAX PROPOSED

WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE
RECOMMENDS TAX FOR SOLDIER RELIEF. DEMOCRATS
WANT WAR PROFITS TAX

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 20.—A 10 percent dividend tax retroactive to last March 15th was approved today by the house ways and means committee, as a part of the taxation scheme for financing the soldier's relief legislation.

Adoption of the tax provision by a margin of one vote precipitated such a fight in the committee that a favorable report on the bill was delayed with opponents of the stock tax seeking a reconsideration. The committee also refused by a strict party vote to accept an 80 percent retroactive war profit tax proposed by the democratic committee.

TEN KILLED IN W. VA. FIGHTING

By the Associated Press

MATTEWAN, W. Va., May 20.—Thirty members of the state police force arrived in Mattewan this morning and assisted by deputy sheriffs started patrolling the streets. There has been no recurrence of the disorder of last night when 10 persons were killed in a pistol battle between authorities, citizens and detectives. The list carried 12 names, but authorities assert there were only 10 killed.

200,000 CARS IN OKLAHOMA

NEW STATE FAR AHEAD OF OLDER SISTERS IN NUMBER OF MOTOR VEHICLES
IN USE

By the Associated Press

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., May 20.—Approximately 185,000 automobiles, trucks, tractors and motorcycles will be licensed in Oklahoma during 1920, according to an estimate made late today at the state highway department here. Already about 130,000 applications for licenses have been received.

The state prison at McAlester, where the license tags are made, is about 25,000 tags behind applications, it was said at the highway office. This is due, it was explained, to the fact that two tags are required on every motor car. Heretofore only one tag was used and the prison was not equipped to take care of the increased demand. Manufacture of the tags is costing the state 12 cents each.

A permanent license tag will be used beginning with 1921. Each year an identification disk of a new color and shape will be attached to the permanent license. This disk will be the year for which it is issued. Use of a permanent tag, it was said, will result in a considerable saving to the state each year in the manufacture of tags.

Licenses issued each year since 1915 follows: 1915 (six months), 32,546; 1916, 58,707; 1917, 110,195; 1918, 137,500; 1919, 151,300.

MISSOURI EDUCATOR TO ADDRESS C. U.

By the Associated Press

NORMAN, Okla., May 20.—A. Ross Hill, president of the University of Missouri, will deliver the commencement address for the graduating class of the University of Oklahoma here Tuesday, June 8. The baccalaureate sermon, Sunday, June 6, will be by the Rev. C. C. McCalls, dean of St. Paul's cathedral, Oklahoma City. The classes of 1900, 1905, 1910 and 1915 will have reunions this year, the day before commencement.

YOUR HOME TOWN.

Work for your own town.
Beautify it. Improve it.
Make it attractive.

The World War and the Treaty of Peace and the Protective Tariff and all such things are important subjects, but what's the use of cleaning up the world unless you sweep your own doorstep?

The city whose main street is dirty, sordid-looking, cluttered, uninviting, suffers much. Such a city wants to be cleaned, recreated, made a thing of beauty, so that people will come miles to see it.

The best advertisement of your business is the town you live in.

Towns get reputations as well as men. Make your town talked of all over the state. It will then draw people. And where the people come, there is prosperity.

It does not take money. It takes co-operation. Get together. Organize for civic improvement. Develop the civic nerve.

Rid your town of one eyesore after another. Clean up the vacant lots and plant them in gardens. Make a cluttered yard a disgrace. Make public opinion too hot for those who will not help.

It pays. It will promote law and order. It will help in the education of your children. It will draw factories and other business enterprises to your locality.

Shiftlessness, untidiness, dirt and selfishness, as shown in your streets and buildings, reacts upon your people.

Such things make your boys and girls grow up hating their home town.

Make your home town a children's paradise, something that memory will lovingly turn back to.

Look after your Amusements, your Parks, your Playgrounds, your Theatres, and all your other means of communal enjoyment.

Make your home town happy.

It pays.

A NEW FISHING AND HUNTING FIELD: VANCOUVER ISLAND

Pitchfork Falls near Clifton, B.C.

Road in Stanley Park, Vancouver, B.C.

Vancouver Island offers sportsmen a rich field in its almost unexploited streams and woods. The dense forests of the unsettled parts abound in game. Wild fowl, small game and deer are very plentiful, and the hunter for bear is pretty certain to get his Bruin. Large areas of forest are still unexplored and the sportsman ranging them has the added joy of being a pioneer.

The island is part of a partly submerged range of mountains and the hills and mountains that form its surface, make for many waterfalls in the streams. This is the water belovéd by trout. Here, too, are found naturalized fish citizens. Salmon were unknown to the island waters until some sport-loving Englishmen who had settled there, made the experiment of transplanting them. The venture proved a success and today some of the finest salmon fishing in the world may be enjoyed on Vancouver Island. In fact it has been favorably compared to that of Scotland, where salmon fishing sport reaches its culmination. Vancouver Island offers other pleasures. Its motor roads are world famous. Malahat Drive, Sooke Drive, Saanich Peninsula Drive and a dozen more radiate from Victoria. Choice of anyone will take you over miles of beauty—a stretch of shoreline, a dash through the twilight made by giant firs and cedars, glimpses of magnificent estates almost buried in flowers. Charming little towns are strung along these drives, most of them have comfortable hotels. The Chalet at Cameron Lake. Offers excellent accommodations and good fishing in delightful surroundings. Golf is strongly entrenched, Victoria alone has three splendid courses. Beaches are plentiful and bathing may be enjoyed the year around. The Esquimault & Nanaimo Railway follows the shore of the Gulf of Georgia and links up the coast towns. It was over this line that the Prince of Wales traveled to visit the Returned Soldiers' Settlement at Courtney.

SPORTS

Athlete Barred

By the Associated Press
ANTWERP, May 20.—Wislander, the all around Swedish athlete who was second to Thorpe in the 1912 Olympic games as individual champion, has met with the same fate as Thorpe—disbarment from competition in the 1920 Olympiad, for his refusal to accept the prizes won by Thorpe but awarded to Wislander when Thorpe was declared a professional, according to Swedish athletes who attended the Olympic events here.

Wislander has steadily declined to accept the medals and stauettes on the ground that they were not his but Thorpe's by right of victory and these awards still are in the hands of the 1912 committee at Stockholm.

For refusing to accept the committee's rulings, Wislander has been barred from Olympic competitions.

Can't Arrange Straightaway

By the Associated Press
ANTWERP, May 20.—Officials in charge of the Olympic games to be held in August, have so far found it impossible to arrange a straightaway at the stadium for the 200 meter race—the nearest Olympic equivalent to the American 220 yard dash.

The maximum possible length of a straight track in the stadium is only slightly above a hundred yards and the 200 meter race probably will be run with one gradual elliptical curve in the course.

Climate Bad for Athletes

By the Associated Press
ANTWERP, May 20.—Athletes who wish to train for the Olympic games at Antwerp would find training in a low altitude preferable. Antwerp is only a few feet, perhaps 6, above the sea-level and the climate generally is about that of London—some fog and a bit of murkiness.

As to what effect this climate would have on athletes trained in a high altitude, none of the atmospheric experts in Belgium ventures a prediction. During August, at which time the games are to be held, the weather at Antwerp is usually warm and perhaps as dry as any other time of the year. Records show that rain is comparatively rare during this month.

American Rifle to Be Used

By the Associated Press
ANTWERP, May 20.—If the American authorities consent, the American army rifle and pistol will be used by at least one European team—the Belgians—in the marksmanship events of the Seventh Olympiad, to be held at Waterloo, near Brussels, July 24-31.

Belgian army experts, after studying the results of the army shooting contests held during the past year in France, have decided that the American weapons are superior to all others and have requested the American embassy at Brussels to secure permission to use them.

Much interest is attached to the marksmanship events of this Olympiad because of the tests they are expected to give of wartime sharpshooting experiences. Entries close June 23 and practically every European national as well as North and South American teams, will be represented.

Stick To It

First of all decide that the job is worth doing. Second that you are the person who should do it.

Third, do it. But you won't do it if you don't stick to it until it is done. Consider the postage stamp. How far do you suppose it would carry your letter if it dropped off before it reached the mail box?

The postage stamp carries your letter around the world, up to the top floor of the highest office building, to the lowest basement room, through crowded city streets or far off into the lonesome desert, all because it sticks.

Next job you tackle consider the postage stamp. And stick!

Pure, nourishing blood makes healthy flesh, good muscles and a strong vitality. The reverse is the case when the blood is poor. To drive out impurities and enrich the blood take Prickly Ash Bitters. It is a most efficient blood purifier and system regulator. Price $1.25 per bottle. Gwin & Mays Drug Co., Special Agents.

LECTURES, CONCERTS, SOCIAL LIFE, RECREATION

There will be lectures on topics of general interest throughout the season. In addition to these there will also be lectures in connection with the various departments.

Following is a list of some of the well known educators and speakers who will address the students during the summer session.

Andrew Thomas Smith of West Chester, Pennsylvania, who has lectured to the summer students of East Central for the past three summers;

Charles S. Meek Superintendent of Schools of San Antonio, Texas; Dr. A. E. Winship of Boston, the most versatile school man of America;

Hon. Luther Harrison, State Senator and a peerless orator;

Hon. Hugh S. McGill, Secretary of the National Educational Association; and

Hon. P. C. Holden of the National Harvester Company, a man altogether unique and one of the livest wires in rural school work in America.

One or more concerts will be given by the chorus and orchestra during the session. A rare opportunity for choral and orchestral work will be offered the summer students, and one of the greatest concerts ever given in this part of the state is planned for Friday evening July twenty-third. All students interested in chorus singing will be admitted. No previous chorus experience is required. Rehearsals will be held daily in the chapel from nine to ten o'clock. One-half credit will be allowed for the term.

An excellent instructor has been engaged to conduct the summer orchestra and at students who play an orchestral instrument are urged to bring their instruments and take advantage of this opportunity for knowledge of music and of the instrument one elects to play is the requirement for admission. Rehearsals will be held daily in room 315 from 9 to 10 o'clock. One-half credit will be allowed for the term.

A number of receptions and "mixer" features have been planned for the summer term, the first being a reception to be held on the campus Tuesday evening June 1st, at which time the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. will entertain the faculty and entire student body.

A picnic and supper at the lake for the entire school some day when both the sun and the faculty have been inconsiderate is another promised diversion. But perhaps the most popular feature of all will be the moving pictures which promise to far surpass anything we have been able to offer in the past.

No town of its size in the state can offer more wholesome diversion than Ada and its environs.

Some of the points worthy of visit are the following:

The country club lake with its boating and bathing. Byrd's Mill, with its mammoth spring, picturesque scenery and ideal picnic grounds. The government park at Sulphur, one of the most beautiful parks in the state.

The Glass Casket factory, where one may see the entire process of making everything from caskets to cut glass vases and chandeliers.

The Portland Cement plant, the largest of its kind in Oklahoma and one of the largest in the world. The little city of Byng where one may see the largest electric plant in the state.

And last but not least churches of every denomination with a welcome for all.—East Centralite.

Women should be taught by those of experience that their most precious possession is their health. Upon it depends happiness, success and attractive homes,—for no home can be attractive or happy with a despondent, nervous, irritable wife and mother, suffering from the ills peculiar to her sex, such as displacements, ulceration, inflammation, irregularities and the consequent headaches, backache, and dragging down pains.

It is such women who should listen to common sense advice and when such symptoms appear try that most successful of all medicines, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs and contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and which for more than forty years has been restoring American women to health.

Here is Proof.

Cokesberry, Fla.—"I had a tumor and suffered with a severe pain in my right side. I could not stoop to fasten my shoes and was not able to do my work. I went to the doctor and he gave me medicine and told me to stay in bed for at least fifteen days and not even to lift a basin of water till I could gain strength enough to be operated on for I never would be well without it. I remembered one of my aunts who had been in the same condition and was cured by your medicine so I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got well completely. The tumor has disappeared and I am able to do anything I want to do. I recommend your medicine to my friends and you can publish my testimonial."—Mrs. S. F. RANDOLPH, Box 18, Cokesberry, Fla.

Wakefield, Neb.—"I felt sick all over and did not know what to do with myself. I was irregular and had chills and night sweats, would vomit at that time. I suffered in this way for many years and had medicine from two doctors but they did me no good and so I lost faith in them. Finally my husband got tired of seeing me suffer so he got me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It seemed to help me right away, then I got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Tablets and took several boxes. Now I feel just fine all the time so it surely is a wonderful medicine. I have told several ladies about your medicine and you can use my testimonial."—Mrs. JULIET L. FRIMM, R. No. 1, Box 4, Wakefield, Nebraska.

WOMAN QUESTION BEFORE CHURCH

PRESBYTERIANS WILL DISCUSS AND VOTE ON ELECTING WOMEN TO OFFICE IN THE CHURCH

By the Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—A commission of women to ordination as ruling elders of the Presbyterian church is a question that will be submitted to a referendum vote of the entire denomination in the United States if the recommendation of a commission which has been studying the subject for the past year is approved by the Presbyterian General Assembly which opens its annual sessions here tonight.

A survey, taken by the Commission on the Official Relation of Women in the church, in which the opinions of leading ministers, elders and women was obtained, led its members to these conclusions:

"That the Scriptures did not forbid either women elders or women preachers; that three other denominations ordain women to the ministry but that few women avail themselves of the privilege; that four other denominations did not have women preachers and are not inclined to have them; that the evidence shown is favorable to women as elders but unfavorable to women as ministers; that of the Presbyterians canvassed 60 per cent favored women elders, 48 per cent favored women as ministers, while 31 1/2 per cent opposed any change in the present usage of the church."

An elder in the Presbyterian church occupies a spiritual office but does not preach. He assists the minister in his religious duties and, as a prebyter, is a member of the governing body of the church endowed with the function, among others, of maintaining denominational discipline. For centuries the office has been filled exclusively by men.

Last year, three Presbyteries, it was said, made overtures to the General Assembly. One from the Presbytery of Columbia river asked that women be made eligible to ordination both as ministers and ruling elders. Another from the Presbytery of Dallas, Tex., asked that a committee be appointed to investigate the whole question of enlarged opportunities for women in the church and the Presbytery of Saginaw, Mich., urged that they be ordained as ruling elders. The Moderator thereupon appointed a commission to inquire and report, composed of the Rev. S. Hall Young, chairman, the Rev. Edgar W. Work and Rush Taggart, all of New York, the Rev. William Barrett of Bellfontaine, O., and John T. Manning of New Haven, Conn.

The Commission said it found that the Methodist Protestant, the Congregational and the Christian churches ordain women to the ministry but few availed themselves of the privilege. Four other denominations, the Lutheran, Baptist, Episcopal and Methodist Episcopal, it was said, "do not have women preachers nor does there seem to be any particular inclination in these churches to accord them this office."

"In practically all of these seven churches," said the report, "women are admitted to every other official position in the church except the ministry. They serve on official boards, are trustees, deaconesses, etc., and there is a growing tendency to admit them to official equality with men in the matter of council and oversight in the government and service of the church."

Those opposed to any change in the present usage in the Presbyterian church were quoted by the commission as arguing that ordination of women would lower their duties, retard or defeat the union of Presbyterian churches in the United States, keep men from church and countenance and accelerate a "dangerous feminist movement."

Arguments quoted in favor of the change included statements that it would accord with the spirit of the age and with women's civil equality, that women and girls composed the majority of the membership of the church and did more work than the other sex and that they were "entitled to the honors as well as the labors."

The commission declined to express any opinion on the merits of the question, stating that it was divided, "a majority having expressed themselves as conservative."

Around Town

The Daily Rounds of a Reporter—told by Himself.

Rambled into the First National bank yesterday afternoon and interviewed Mr. Pickens, one of the tellers of that institution. Yep, Pick is a good scout and newsy, too. He informed me that he had a Ford roadster that he wanted to sell and only wanted $550 for it. Bankers talk big money anyway. Didn't want to feel financially uncomfortable, especially in a bank, so I agreed with him that the car was worth the money and that I would be in the market for a car some time soon and if he still had the car when I was ready to purchase he and I could talk trade. Have about six bits and lots of other loose change now.

"Why don't you know that car yourself? Don't you know that the Summer Normal starts in a few days and that there will be about 300 girls here?"

"That's it," said Pick, "I'm married and if I don't sell that 'divver' right away trouble might start in the family as temptation is too great at times."

Came out of the bank and met Corral Hawkins of the recruiting service.

"Young man, do you want to join the army?" he asked.

"Join the army, they want men, don't they?" I fired back.

"Oh, we might fix it up so you can get in," he replied.

"Many thanks, oldtimer, but I am employed at present," I replied.

"Served 14 months and equally as many days in the army and the sound of bugles don't appeal to me."

Just had to have a "coke," so I stepped into the Palm Garden to get one.

Yes, Jim Norman was in there, and stuck me for another dime—this cuts my pile down to 55c, but I am a sport to the finish, always. Say, I like that place; a fellow feels full-chested around there. You can go back in the garden, sit down in comfortable seats, tell the waiter what you want and get it P. D. Q. Drink that delicious beverage and hear the music, and then wonder "How Are You Going to Keep 'Em Down on the Farm?"

Charlie Chaplin was at the American Theatre today. I know for the posters stated that he was playing today "In a Pawnshop." I stood around for a while and wondered if Chaplin really was in a pawnshop. Of course, everybody gets hard up for money sometimes—I am just about ready to look up one of these institutions now. Cash in hand and in my pockets totals only 45c, as I spent a dime with the pop corn man in front of the show.

Eating pop-corn makes me thirsty and I stepped into Mrs. Land's for something to drink. I ordered a milk "something, anyway it sounded French and was fine. That was some drink, ice cream, milk and chocolate all in the same glass, and all for 17c. Cash in hand now is 28c.

Conversation was pretty lively, all about the prize fight Tuesday night. Some little fellow remarked that "Sailor Lewis" could whip Jack Kelly if he had a few weeks' good training.

"What do you know about fighting anyway?" said a big man with a deep bass voice.

"Oh, not much of anything," replied the little man.

No one seemed to want to discuss the subject with the big man, so I drifted out while drifting was good.

I stopped in at Cox's Shoe Shop for a few minutes to find out what was happening around that place. Lots of work in there. They do a sole business, and can fix up any kind but a human. They expect to be able to take care of this class of business in a few days. Got out of there all safe and didn't let them get any of my cash.

Sweatt's Tailor Shop is a swell place. Lot's happening around there, too. J. W. Sweatt, the proprietor, is a nice fellow. Has lots of friends, especially among the ladies.

Eaton Edwards who has been with Mr. Sweatt for seven years, says he cannot account for him, and thinks he will soon aspire to the title of "never-Sweatt."

Heard something that sounded good and went to where it came from—to the Ada Music company's store.

"Hawaiian Bill," who is playing the Liberty Theatre this week, was entertaining a very attentive audience with a few selections on a "ukelele." He is a fine musician. I seated myself on a big sofa and listened. He played "Hawaiian Dreams," and I was so carried away with his music that I almost went to sleep. Mr. Penrose, the manager, tapped me on the shoulder just to save me my trip to the "Land of Nod."

I smoke cigars and I had better get one. The Harris hotel has a very nice cigar stand and a splendid sales manager—good looking, too. Met an old-time friend, George

"Sure," he replied.

"What kind?" the saleslady inquired.

"Im partial to the Tom Moore," he replied.

"Make it two," I ordered.

Looked on the box and read a little sign which read like this, "2 for 25c." Paid the bill as if I really owed it. Not broke yet. Met an old friend, visited the business institutions of the city, had a big time and have lots of copy for today's paper. I thank you.

LIFE STORY OF "NICKY" ARNSTEIN

WORLD CITIZEN WHO STOLE
$5,000,000 WAS SOUGHT EVERYWHERE. MARRIED
AN ACTRESS. NOW OUT ON BOND.

By the Associated Press

NEW YORK, May 20.—Jules W. ("Nicky") Arnstein, sought by the police of two continents as the alleged head of a band of swindlers who, by connivance with bank and brokerage messengers, are said to have stolen from $1,500,000 to $5,000,000 in bonds and other securities from Wall Street firms, is the husband of Fannie Brice, an actress whom he married in 1917. He disappeared from New York, where he maintained two lavishly appointed apartments besides a country home at Huntington, L. I., on February 12 last, since which he has been reported in various parts of the country or on the eve of "surrendering" to the authorities.

Arnstein is the son of a New York business man and is 42 years old. The police say he is as well-known in France and England as in the United States. Circulars offering a reward for his arrest said he "frequented high-class hotels and gambling places." He is a flashy dresser. Once, when arraigned in court, he appeared in a blue serge suit, a polka dot necktie and a pink silk shirt.

Eight years ago Arnstein was arrested in London and extradited to New York for swindling William E. Shinks of Springfield, Mass., out of $15,000 by means of worthless stock. Sentenced to two years in Sing Sing prison, Arnstein served less than a year. Six other members of the band were later arrested in San Francisco, Tokio and Baltimore.

Shortly after Arnstein's disappearance last February, a federal judge in New York issued an order enjoining 500 or more banks and depositories in the metropolis from disposing of any money, stocks, bonds or other securities Arnstein might have on deposit in them. He was known to have six safe deposit boxes in various public vaults. According to the police, Arnstein, together with his associates, obtained the stolen bonds and other securities from the messengers and runners and took them to various cities where they were put up as collateral for loans. The boys or men who committed the thefts received less than one-quarter of their value and in some instances, nothing at all. More than $500,000 was said to have been "buried" in Canadian banks in this way. About $750,000 is said to have been traced to Philadelphia, Washington, Baltimore and Cleveland.

Assistant District Attorney Dooling of New York, who has been prominent in the investigation of the Arnstein case, said that in four months from October, 1919, there had been more than 500 bond robberies ranging from $500 to $178,000, and that most of them were "office" jobs, that is, done by employees of banks and brokerage houses. He said the "system" had connections in every large city in the United States. Bonds stolen in Cleveland, Chicago or San Francisco, he declared, were forwarded to fences in New York or other large cities who put them up as collateral for loans.

"Hidden strings are being pulled," declared Bernard J. McGinn, manager of the claim department of the American Surety company, "through underground channels which seem to undermine most of the financial district. Leaks, it seems, are taking place within stock exchange houses and it looks as though an organized intelligence service is in operation."

Arnstein's name, according to the police records, came into prominence in the case last February in connection with the arrest in New York of Joseph and Edward Gluck, brothers, Herbert and Rudolph Burora and Edward Eurey, bank and brokerage messengers in Wall Street. He was specifically charged with receiving $42,000 worth of Crucible Steel certificates stolen from a New York brokerage house. Some of the prisoners stated that Arnstein and his alleged partner, Nicholas Cohn, for whom rewards of $2,500 are offered, had received from them and disposed of more than $2,300,000 worth of bonds and other negotiables.

Shortly after Arnstein's flight last February, hearings were held in the federal court in New York to have his adjudged an involuntary bankrupt. It was there charged that "His assets consist of many thousands of dollars." A few weeks later a New York lawyer, who said he was counsel for the fugitives, reported he had met Arnstein in Cleveland and that he had told him he was "innocent" of the bond theft charges and would surrender if bail was fixed at $35,000. He said Arnstein had rheumatism and feared imprisonment in a cold, damp cell in the Tombs if more than this amount of bail were demanded. He said Arnstein has told him he had won $18,000 in a crap game in Cleveland and lost $82,000 the next night in the same place.

The bond thefts, which have been going on for months in New York, took a tragic turn in one case, Benjamin M. Binkowitz, a messenger employed by Richard C. Whitney &

Co., bankers and brokers, who disappeared in August, 1919, with $178,000 worth of securities, was stabbed to death and his body left alongside a road near Milford, Conn. Arnstein and his associates, however, have not been connected with the crime. The police, in working on the Binkowitz murder said it was committed by the same band which participated in the killing of Barnett Baff, a wealthy New York poultry merchant, in November, 1914.

During the bankruptcy proceedings, David W. Sullivan of D. W. Sullivan & Co., a former brokerage firm of Washington, D. C., stated under promise of immunity, that his firm had obtained $600,000 worth of bonds from Arnstein and Cohn during the past year, all of which, he believed, were stolen. Sullivan said he tried to break away from the pair but that Arnstein said: "You have gone this far with us, and if you do, I'll kill you." Among the numerous arrests made in the bond theft cases in New York, from time to time, were those of James Keane and James Haines, two private detectives from Montreal, who are held as material witnesses in the Tombs.

THE PRIDE OF OKLAHOMA

The other day as we were riding along an Oklahoma railroad we came to a small hamlet half hidden among the hills. It was not prepossessing, not by any means. The few houses bore no evidence of wealth or refinement. The village could hardly be called a wide place in the road. Yet there stood in the edge of the village a handsome brick school building, sufficiently large and pretentious to grace a small sized city in some other state.

That building out among the hills is the excuse Oklahoma offers for her being. It is her appeal to the fair consideration of the world. It is the product on which her pride is based and from which she derives her greatest satisfaction. She can look across her boundaries into any state that touches her and can find in none of them such progress made in the cause of education. When Oklahoma thinks of the conveniences to be found in older states, she can contemplate her schools and be content.

The progress in education since statehood is really one of the marvels of our history. This was an unbroken wilderness a dozen years ago. We live in the newest corner of this republic. We are just out of the box, considered as a state, and we still have the squeak in our shoes. But in the midst of primeval solitudes we have built some cities and many school buildings. Those buildings are among the most modern in the country. They are surpassed by none. The people of Oklahoma are justly proud of the schools they have established and are resolutely determined to maintain the best school system in the country.

The quips and cranks and wanton wiles of American politics were never better illustrated than by the fact that the best friend the Democratic party has had in twenty years is Hiram Johnson, who is now a leading Republican candidate for the presidency, and the best friend the Republican party has had in twenty years is William J. Bryan, who is now leading Democratic possibility for the presidency.

A twenty three year old lady in Oklahoma City was badly chagrined when she read in the Times the other day where she had figured in a social function twenty five years ago. Sometimes the files of a newspapers are nightmares to the best meaning people.

The Republican national committee has met, Henry Cabot Lodge will preside at Chicago, and the honk of the steam roller is heard in the land. In the meantime "Hellroarin' Hiram" displays unmistakable symptoms of an early political demise.

These knights of the green cloth who hide behind cellardoor to engage in a game of penny ante are pikers. They ought to get a street carnival license and few dozen roulette wheels and open up on Main street.

Oklahoma is still the most progressive of all the states. The hen house took the place of the ash hopper, the garage took the place of the hen house, and now the distillery is taking the place of the garage.

The first fruits of our victory over Wilson's league of nations is an increase in the cost of our standing army to an amount three times as great as the cost of the German army in 1914. Fine work!

The plains country of Texas is without doubt the windiest country in the United States. But just think what it would be if Tom Blanton didn't stay in Washington!

The war made some decided change in the balance of power in Europe but it left Lafollette holding the undisputed balance of power in the United States.

There are just 360 active volcanoes in the world. The number of extinct ones has increased since the Missouri convention and the Texas primaries.

Senator Owen says that high prices are more important than the league of nations as a political issue. But the honorable senate has settled neither.

There is one thing to be said in favor of the latest style of feminine dress and that is it is not any camouflage scheme.

Congress is fond of saying that the United States is the richest nation on earth. With congress meeting it has to be.

Even when we had a war to worry about, we didn't seem to worry half as much as we have since the war ended.

Dewey's Gift is Being Razed

Wrecking crews at work on the home

As one way of showing America's appreciation of Admiral Dewey's heroic exploits in the Spanish American war, the nation, by popular subscription, purchased a home for the navy hero at Rhode Island and Connecticut Avenues, Washington. A few weeks later Dewey caused a storm of protest by presenting the house to his wife. It was later transferred to the admiral's son George. Now it has been sold by the admiral's heirs and the new owners are tearing it down to replace it with a commercial building.

Oklahoma City Times: Billy Sunday chose his topic well when he spoke last Friday night on "Tolerance." Something more of regard for others would go far toward ending the turmoil which disturbs the world today. That way lies the co-operation and team work needed to maintain society as a going concern, and check the drift toward chaos.

Ardmoreite: Billy Sunday is going to chase the devil clear out of Oklahoma City, according to the Oklahoman. That may be right for Oklahoma City, but it's bound to be mighty hard on the place into which he chases his satanic majesty. Why not, just a suggestion, get the old man in a corral and keep him up there—say somewhere in the neighborhood of Grand avenue?

Ardmoreite: Judge Williams says that this country needs more toilers, that the farms are all bound for Gehenna, that the young men must stay away from the cities and till the soil and milk the cows and carry the horses and raise the crops. The trouble is, the young men are emulating the examples set them by Judge Williams, and a lot of the rest of us, and are leaving the farms, today, even as we left them yesterday.

Ethel Clayton Had Exciting Vacation On Trip to Orient

Ethel Clayton will re-appear before local screen patrons when her latest picture, "More Deadly Than The Male," is shown at the Liberty theatre today.

This marks the first photoplay in which Miss Clayton has been featured in many months and her absence has been commented upon widely by moviegoers. It is explained by the fact that the pretty star but recently returned from an extensive tour of the Orient during which, accompanied by her mother and brother, she visited China, Japan and several other countries. Miss Clayton, against the wishes of other members of the party, insisted upon penetrating into the lesser known parts of the Celestial Kingdom and while in a particularly wild region of the interior encountered some local disturbances among the natives that delayed her return to this country for a month or more.

Her experience in the Orient qualified the talented favorite to go through the thrilling experiences that are said to feature the plot of "More Deadly Than The Male." The picture is described as an exciting story with a startling surprise climax. Miss Clayton is supported by a good cast headed by Edward Hoxen. It is a Paramount-Artcraft feature, directed by Robert G. Vignola.

"Y" ORGANIZATION ACTIVE AT NORMAL

The young men of the institution have continually felt the need of an organization, backing up the same principles as the Young Men's Christian Association. These sentiments too, definite form this spring term when a number of the young men students decided that East Central should no longer be without the privilege or honor for it is indeed an honor of having a real live student "Y. M."

The organization meeting was held March 16. Prospects have been excellent from the first as was shown by the fact that there were eighteen or twenty at the first meeting.

In the way of programs for the regular weekly meetings the boys have had several inspirational talks from some of the ministers of Ada and from different faculty members, among whom are Rev. Dunn, Rev. Taylor, Rev. Morris, Mr. Newcomb, Mr. Perkins and Mr. Wilson.

Through these talks the young men have been given food for thoughts of a higher plane.

In view of the fact that no varsity team was put on the field this year the Y. M. C. A. have given a chance for some physical recreation for the young men by organizing a baseball team.

The organization gave its first evidence of the fact that it was to be a real factor in East Central life by taking part in the District Interscholastic Meet. The members offered their assistance in any way that would help to handle the situation. Some assisted on the track, others helped give information. But the chief assistance rendered was in establishing a free parcel check stand for the visitors. The boys accommodated hundreds of people in this way. Incidentally although not so in a financial way, was the Y. M. C. A. "pop" stand where everyone seemed to go to quench their thirst.

A quartette has been organized which furnishes pleasant variations in the programs at times and has also sung at a few public occasions.

At present the meetings are held in the reception room, but the organization has high hopes of securing a regular "Y" room soon. Enthusiastic plans are being laid as to the possibilities and use of such a room.

As soon as they become affiliated and in close connection with the national association, the young men will, according to present prospects, accomplish things that will make the entire school take notice.

At present the officers are: President, Oliver Vernon; Vice-President, W. K. Newcomb; Secretary, Raymond Caskey; Treasurer, William Riddle; Sergeant-at-Arms, Clifton Parker; Chaplain, Mr. Norris.

A cordial invitation is extended to every young man student to align himself with the Y. M. C. A. and thus create a better moral atmosphere in the institution.—East Centralite.

The Newspaper Reporter

It is the custom for the layman of limited knowledge of the world and the people in it to speak of a newspaper reporter disparagingly; to talk with him condescendingly; and to take unto himself an air of superiority when one is near. Reporter?—he says so himself—Oh, a reporter is a young chap trying to make an honest living until he gets into some more businesslike line of work; in other words, a creature to be tolerated. This is his own ignorance shown.

Yet we wonder, does the average business man fully understand the functions of a reporter, his business ideals, and the power which he may wield at times? Not all reporters are "young chaps, trying to make an honest living." Some are old men making magnificent incomes.

Several years ago we were traveling with one of these older men, who has reported every great world event during the last generation, and who knows intimately some of the great statesmen of five countries, and who paid income tax on a yearly salary of over $25,000. A fussy little chap, who looked as if he might be a venter of suspender buttons on commission, came puffing into the smoker and inquired:

"What's your line, brother?" And the man whose name was a household word among readers in America and England casually replied, "I'm just a reporter."

Must be pretty bad to be a reporter at your age," was the response. "Well, I live in Cincinnati, and if I can ever do you a good turn, come in and see me." The older man thanked him gravely. Half an hour later the fussy little man was telling the smoking room crowd that "so-and-so is one of the biggest writers in America," and there was "so-and-so" sitting opposite him, having been ignored after the opening sentence because he had the modesty to label himself "just a reporter."

Reporters, Yes—they range from the youngest just out of college to the veteran Frederick Palmer, who calls more generally by their first names than any other living man; from the quiet fellow in the small town who goes about his business without puffing out his chest, to genial Irvin S. Cobb, whom the Germans thought important enough to be sentenced to death in 1914—but whom they didn't dare shoot.

We've read many interesting books, but we believe that the most interesting volume that could be written just now would be one compiled by one of our reporters, who could write with facility on "Four-flushers, I Have Met." To the average man chronicling the day's activities for the press, brass is seldom mistaken for glittering gold, though the rest of the public may frequently be deceived.

Knowing reporters as we do, if we were in business the last thing that we would think of doing would be to condescend to a reporter. Sometimes the latter has the memory of an elephant, which may be used on occasions.

A nice, pleasant purgative that also has a genial stimulating effect in the liver and stomach is one reason why Prickly Ash Bitters is so well liked by people who have used it. They find it a good medicine for the whole family. Price $1.25 per bottle. Gwin & Mays Drug Co., Special Agents.

SPRING FEVER

Following Colds, Grip or Flu, Thin, Watery or Poisoned Blood

(By DR. VALENTINE MOTT.)

At this time of year most people suffer from what we term "spring fever" because of a stagnant condition of the blood, because of the toxins (poisons) stored up within the body during the long winter. We eat too much meat, with little or no green vegetables.

Bloodless people, thin, anemic people, those with pale cheeks and lips, who have a poor appetite and feel that tired, worn or feverish condition in the spring-time of the year, should try the refreshing tonic powers of a good alternative and blood purifier. Such a tonic as druggists have sold for fifty years, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is a standard remedy that can be obtained in tablet or liquid form. Made without alcohol from wild roots and barks.

SAN MARCIAL, N. MEX.—"I suffered for two years with frequent headache and pain in my left side and the small of my back. I was despondent and so nervous the least racket would upset me. I wrote to the Specialists at the Invalids' Hotel, and was advised to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and the Anuric Tablets. I did so and immediately began to get better. My symptoms disappeared and in two months' time my health was regained. I took six bottles of each medicine and a few of the 'Pleasant Pellets' for regulating my bowels. I am now in perfect health and enjoying life. I cannot say too much in praise of these medicines and the kind and courteous attention given me."—Miss MANIE COVELAND.

NEW BRITISH AMBASSADOR AND WIFE IN HIGH SPIRITS ON ARRIVAL IN U. S.

Sir Auckland Geddes and wife, photographed on arrival in New York.

Sir Auckland C. Geddes, the new British ambassador, and Lady Geddes were in high spirits when they arrived in New York. Lady Geddes smiled with happy recollection as the ship steamed up the bay and she saw Staten Island, where she at one time lived. Sir Auckland, a six-footer, smiled his friendship when greeted by a host of friends, reporters and camera men.

ATHLETIC GAMES TO FEATURE SUMMER TERM

The summer term of 1920 promises much in the way of athletic games for the diversion of the students. At East Central there are athletic facilities that are rarely found at an institution in Oklahoma and these are to be thrown open to all summer school students. A splendid baseball field that has never been in better condition than at present, a quarter mile running track, five tennis courts, croquet grounds, large gymnasium, locker rooms and showers for both men and women are a few of the conveniences that East Central offers to devotees of sport.

Naturally the tennis courts will attract the greater number of students and on this account, great pains have been taken to provide accommodations for as many players as possible. Students of former years will remember the tennis courts to the north of the main building. These are now occupied by a stately Education building and the new tennis courts are located just south of the main athletic field near the President's residence. The usual mid-summer tournament will be held and no doubt some expert tennis will be developed.

A "twilight" baseball league will be organized with the various counties of the district being competing units. Mr. Roy Robinson of Wetumka who is a member of the faculty for the summer and who will be remembered by the old-timers as a star performer on East Central's diamond will have charge of this phase of sport.

If there should be sufficient demand for it, an inter-county track and field meet will be held during the term. On account of the widespread interest that has been shown over the district this spring in this line of sport, it is not at all unlikely that this meet will be held—East Centralite.

MAN IS FOUND WHO DIDN'T KNOW BARNEY

His hair was long and his trousers were tucked into muddy boots. Plainly, he came from a locality more remote than the suburbs. But he drove his little car jauntily up to a store in San Jose, Calif., and demanded the two best rough-tread 30x3 1/2 inch tires in the place.

The salesman rolled out a pair of Oldfields, to which he gave strong personal recommendation. "This is Barney Oldfield's own make," added the salesman as a clinching argument. "He designed 'em for his own cars, builds 'em in his own plant, and supervises the construction of every one of 'em." "Who's Barney Oldfield?" blandly inquired the agriculturalist. For a second the question seemed to fracture even the salesman's brazen calm. Then he grinned. "Quit your kidding," he replied. "This is a serious matter." But the customer persisted and the fact finally permeated that here was a sincere seeker for truth who honestly needed information about the "Master Driver." Enthusiastically the salesman warmed to his work, telling of the veteran's career, his study of tires and the success of his designs. The farmer absorbed every word. "Well," remarked the listener when the salesman had finished, "I never heard tell of this man Oldfield before but, if anybody ought to know tires, I guess he should. Gimme these two." And the deal was closed. More than 580,000 persons were engaged in automobile manufacture in the U. S. last year.

STOMACH TROUBLE AND CONSTIPATION ENDED

Suffered So He Couldn't Work for a Year, but Mr. McCormick Was Cured Promptly.

"I had stomach trouble and constipation for five years. One year of this time I was unable to work, suffering untold agony. I doctored with some of the best physicians, also took many proprietary medicines, but could not find permanent relief. Finally a friend recommended Milks Emulsion. The first few doses relieved me greatly, and three bottles of it effected a permanent cure."—C. A. McCormick, Anderson, Ind.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whom sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Truly wonderful for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 90c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

ARMY OFFICER DEFENDS BOLSHEVIK

By the Associated Press
MANILA, May 20.—Bolshevism is a word that is sadly misconstrued in the United States, says Major-General William S. Graves, commander in chief of the American Expeditionary Force, which recently evacuated Siberia.

"At the mention of a Bolshevik the people instantly conjure a mental picture of a frowzy anarchist with a bomb in one hand and a torch in the other," he said. "But the Bolsheviks in Russia are working for peace and the good of the country. In my belief they are trying to be eminently fair and just to the people. They have deplored the murder and bloodshed which took place before they first came into power in Siberia—January 31 of this year—and are doing every thing possible to stamp this out."

Changing of Base

By Walt Mason.
Kansas winds are always blowing; and my path of life seems thorny; so I'm packing up and going to the groves of California. There beside the sobbing ocean I shall sit and do my singing, filled with prunes and sweet emotion, while the golden hours are winging. Kansas heat is always hotter than the kind that starts you sweating; Kansas rain is full of water, and each day I get a wetting; So I go to San Diego where the honey bees are buzzing; there I'll fill my self with sago, and sing anthems by the dozen. There the scenes are most inspiring, and the natives love them dearly, and a man who lives by lyreing ought to earn ten dollars yearly. By the broad and blue Pacific I'll compose my dippy stanzas, filled with earnings most terrific or the sunbaked plains of Kansas. Resting on my downy pillows, after hours of fierce endeavor, I will watch the mighty billows rolling as they've rolled forever; oh, I'll watch them in their glory, and remark, "I'd give a penny to get back to old Empory where of brine there isn't any."

Kimball Organ, nearly new, fine condition. Will sell cheap or trade for a good cow. Phone 118-J. 630 North Beard Ave. 5-18-5td.

"The Tailors Who Please"AMERICAN MINISTER VICTIM OF PROFITEERS

By the Associated Press
THE HAGUE, May 20.—The new American minister to the Netherlands, William Phillips, considers himself a victim of an instance of profiteering in rent. A wealthy speculator has purchased the commodious building which for a long time was occupied by the American legation and has notified the American diplomats that they will either have to pay a greatly increased rent or move out.

The American charge, Mr. Gunther, has been seeking new quarters but has been handicapped by failure of the American government to provide for the purchase of a legation building.

Hon. A. H. Burris
To Superintend the Holdenville Schools

The authorities at East Central are rejoicing immensely that Hon. A. H. Burris, member of the state board of education and formerly superintendent of schools at Watonga, has been elected superintendent of schools at Holdenville. Some weeks ago in a casual conversation Mr. Burris dropped a suggestion to Mr. Gordon that he might be interested in the Holdenville schools. Mr. Gordon immediately took the matter up with the board of education at Holdenville urging them to offer the place to Mr. Burris. In the meantime Mr. Burris came to feel that it would perhaps be better for him to drop out of the profession for a year or two and do some other work that he had started. Then it became a matter of getting him interested again in the position. President Gordon felt that a member of the state board of education and especially one that has the standing that Mr. Burris has, would be exceedingly helpful in East Central district and was very anxious for this to be brought about. Superintendent Burris is one of the most progressive school men of Oklahoma, and knows school problems. Furthermore, he is exceedingly sympathetic toward the entire Normal School and their problems. Without question the entire Normal Schools District will be immensely pleased when it comes to know that he is to come into this district.

LABOR MEN WILL ASK
PEACE WITH RUSSIA

By the Associated Press

LONDON, May 20.—Demands that Great Britain and her Allies in the war make peace with the Soviet government of Russia will be submitted to the annual conference of the Labor Party, to be held at Scarborough in the latter part of June. The Independent Labor Party which is affiliated with the federated Labor Party has suggested a resolution for adoption in the convention which proposes not only recognition of the Soviet government but that fraternal greetings be sent to the Russian Socialist republic. Another proposal calls for an international conference of all labor parties throughout the world and requests that the Russian government would be expressly asked to send delegates here.

The Hampstead Labor Party has given notice that it will propose a motion that the Labor Party secede from the Second International.

The Birmingham Central offers a resolution declaring that the Allied peace treaties grossly violate the professed objects for which the governments of the Allied and Associated nations entered the war. The Glasgow Trades and Labor Council suggests the adoption of a resolution in favor of the cancellation of the war debts of the Allied nations and advocates an international loan and the establishment of machinery for a world organization of raw materials in order to restore European production.

The Independent Labor Party asks for democratic control of foreign policy and establishment of international standards of labor conditions. It requests that the convention put itself on record as opposed to all militarist and imperialist projects and programs.

Eight resolutions have been sent in by local labor parties dealing with Ireland. Some of these call for self-determination in that country and withdrawal of British troops. The Northwest Hull Labor party asks the convention to express disapproval of the government's policy in Ireland and to arrange for mass meetings all over the country to agitate for a policy of "hands off Ireland."

Other resolutions raise the questions of direct action, nationalization of the railways and public ownership and control of the liquor trade.

apparel and other commodity prices Liverpool and Manchester are spreading bearish propaganda as regards the British trade outlook, no doubt with the object of offsetting the very unfavorable prospects for the new crop and probably with the view of depressing the prices of cotton, if possible. But the south is awake to such tactics and is undisturbed concerning the drive to lower the value of the mill output, realizing that the lower price for goods will attract buyers in larger numbers, which will likely result in larger consumption eventually. The serious feature of the situation before the trade today is the possibility of another moderate, perhaps a short crop this year for next season's requirements. Stocks of good grades and staples in the south are light, the new crop promises to be late in maturing since the start is so backward, labor is scarce and wages high, and present indications are that there will be only a slight increase in the acreage, perhaps no increase at all. With a moderate yield of about 14 million bales this year, prospects are that the trade would be no better off next season, so far as supplies are concerned, than it is this year, whereas if not more than 13 million bales are made, the world would likely be worse off than it is this year to the extent of about 1 million bales. These features of the situation are deserving of more attention than the passing influence of the drive against the profiteers.—H. & B. BEER.

Grain.

Chicago Tribune says: Conditions in the grain market are regarded as the reverse of those prevailing of late. Traders say that instead of buying on breaks sales should be made on all good bulges, as they are to be expected at times, especially until the May delivery is out of the way. But with deflation in many commodities and the bullish enthusiasm there is said to be nothing on which to base purchases for more than temporary advances, other than the fact that there has been a break of 17 cents in cash corn nearly 18 cents in May and 15 cents in July from the high last Saturday. There has been a great deal of liquidation in all grains the last few days and more is looked for. For the present the technical position of the market is regarded as weak. Heavy covering of corn for profits by a number of large local and eastern operators who have been short for a week, leaves the market in a position where any increase in selling, without a decided betterment in the buying power, it was said, would bring lower levels.

TABERNACLE MEETING
GROWING IN INTEREST

A large crowd greeted Evangelist Sparks and Post last evening at the Tabernacle meeting held in the North Ada tabernacle. A rapidly increasing interest was manifest. More than a score made profession of faith. The tabernacle is now comfortable. The night air is broken by canvass stretched to the sides of the shed. Every effort has been put forth for the comfort of the audience.

If you want to get right with God, hear Sparks preach. If you want to smile and sing, permit Post to lead you. If you want to hear two hundred children sing, be at the tabernacle at eight o'clock P. M.

sharp. If you want excuses, you can find them.

Services are held daily: 10 a.m., 3:45 p.m., and 8 p.m. Sparks said "The best asset for a merchant is a genuine revival of Old Time Religion. Why if every person in Ada should get Old Time sure enough Religion the merchants would get rich collecting old accounts."

Come, bring your sympathizers but leave your criticiser at home.
